

LSA CA Classics Ambassadors

Would you like to help spread the word about local and national Classics events and the study and enjoyment of the history, languages, art, culture and literature of the Ancient World?

If so, you may be interested in becoming an ambassador for the Lytham St Annes Classical Association (LSA CA).

We are looking for enthusiastic and reliable people to represent the Association in their school or college by volunteering to do some, or all, of the following:

- ❖ let your school know about the range of events and opportunities organised by the Association
- ❖ answer queries and direct people to the LSA CA website or the Secretary for further information
- ❖ encourage eligible young people to apply for a student bursary to enable them to attend a Classics Summer School at Repton School
- ❖ encourage students aged 11-19 years old to enter the Classics Competition
- ❖ gather feedback from your fellow students so we know what people would like us to do in the future
- ❖ suggest ideas for future events and lecturers
- ❖ write occasional blogs for the LSA CA website
- ❖ write articles and conduct interviews for Agora
- ❖ give the vote of thanks to visiting speakers
- ❖ help organise and/or volunteer to help run future events that may happen as a result of feedback

For a Classics Ambassador application form, please go to the website or contact the Secretary at the address opposite.
